Award-winning composer and pianist George Colligan is one of the most original and compelling jazz artists of his generation. Recently relocated to Portland, Oregon, he returns to Maryland and to Jazzway 6004 to perform his latest material.

He has released 21 recordings full of his intelligent writing and impressive technique, and his latest CD on the Pilo Records Label is entitled Pride and Joy. Colligan's musical style incorporates everything from showtunes to funk, from free improvisation to 20th century classical music. His performances include dazzling technique as well as mature restraint.

"...In terms of technique, knowledge of music and improvisational creativity, there aren't a whole lot of cats from his generation that are any better than him. As a matter of fact, I can't think of any."
– Don Braden, Jazz Times

"One of the best kept secrets in jazz..."
– Chris Hoven, All About Jazz
